Growing Up Olwell: A look at a Catholic middle class family from Seattle. Robert L. Olwell

"Is that ten year old drinking a beer?" the officer asked. "It's okay, he's not old enough to drive," my father replied. "It is what it is." Have you ever wondered how it got that way? Have you ever looked in the reflection in the mirror and asked yourself just how you became what you are? "Growing Up Olwell" assists in the quest for that answer in a single family from Seattle. This is a funny and fairly accurate recount of the events which made this family who they are. It will make you laugh as you follow the events in this family's lives.
