If I Could Ask God One Question Greg Johnson

"Hello, operator, I'd like to speak to GOD please?"

If only God had a telephone number. Whenever you're feeling a bit confused, all you would need to do is pick up your cordless and give Him a ring, or at least page His beeper.

God doesn't have a phone but He wants to give you answers. He's left you an instruction manual, the Bible, to help you through your walk on this earth. But all Christians at some point in their faith stumble upon a question they have a difficult time finding an answer to. Not to mention the questions you've always had but were afraid to ask.

If I Could Ask God One Question is ideal for sorting through questions about God, the Christian faith, and the Bible. Questions such as:

How do I forgive someone who's hurt me?

Why do I need to read the Old Testament?

Is temptation a sin?

What does God have to say about parties?

-as well as many others are sensitively answered and will reassure you that God isn't afraid of a heart that is genuinely looking for an answer.
