When his blood test results come back positive for HIV, Bruno Garcia—young, gregarious, and deeply closeted—is convinced his life is over. Instead, a surprise marriage proposal from his overwhelmingly competent immigration officer, Betty, offers him an undreamed of solution. Even after Bruno falls in love with Anthony, a Venezuelan ex-pat with familial baggage of his own, Betty stays by his side. The three form connections that defy conventions and span continents. Three Loves tenderly depicts how choices, not blood, determine the true meaning and shape of a family.
