Excerpt from The Doctor's Daughter: Revised; Sequel to the Pastor's Son

My motive in writing this book is twofold. I wish if possible to make clear to some of my fellow-men the error and nonsense of the drugging system of healing, hoping thereby to free from the bondage of medication those who are the habitual slaves of the belief that a senseless drug can produce health and prolong life. Having spent seven years and much money in testing the various systems of medication and hygiene, thereby undergoing continually increasing agonies, I was at last driven to despair, and thus impelled to try Christian Science, with the result that in a few weeks, and for a few dollars, I was completely and permanently healed. Incidentally, I will also take occasion to express some ideas of truth which have come to me, and which I hope may be useful to others. I do this in view of the fact that, "Ceasing to give, we cease to have, such is the law of Love."
