With only his faith, his Highlander heart, and a bit of bloodied plaid to cling to, Findley vows he will find Maggy and her sons, no matter what hell he must endure.

How can she place her trust or her heart in the hands of a man she barely knows... and maintain her freedom and keep her secrets hidden?

Fearful she'll be forced into another loveless marriage, Maggy is able to keep her identity secret and her family together for three long years. But after her home is destroyed and her young son kidnapped, those secrets begin to unravel, one agonizing thread at a time. How can she place her future, and that of her sons' in the hands of Findley McKenna, a man she barely knows? And what would he think of her should he learn the truth?
