Drawing Lessons Tracy Mack

A stunning first novel about losing your childhood and finding your voice.

Twelve-year-old Aurora is an artist like her father. Through a hundred drawing lessons he guided her hand, trained her eye, taught her how to mix colors and achieve perspective. Together they plan to paint a beautiful mural for Rory's mother... maybe showing a sunset, to make up for the ones Mom misses because she's at her job, supporting the family. But when Rory goes to show her father a sketch for the mural she finds him embracing his model. Outraged, she tries to hurt him by burning up her sketchbook. Soon after, he leaves, and Rory knows her anger drove him away.
