Yugoslav Literary-Theoretical Thought Volume I: 1500-1955 (Studies in Funcional and Structural Linguistics)

Part of a two-volume overview of Yugoslav contributions to the theoretical study of literature, this work presents works of nearly 50 writers ranging from the 16th century to the present. This first volume includes theorists of the Baroque, Romanticism, Realism, Symbolism, Expressionism and Surrealism, and also addresses the question of socialism and literature. A separate chapter is devoted to the contributions of key theorists working in universities. The second volume presents contemporary theoretical literary studies in Yugoslavia. There are sections on poetics, literary semiology, thematics, narratology, stylistics, metrics, literary genology, text mediation and reception theory. Also included are contributions from the methodology of literary studies.
