Controversies in Gastrointestinal Diseases: 8th European Bridging Meeting in Gastroenterology, EAGE Postgraduate Course, Naples, November 2006 (Special Issue: Digestive Diseases 2007)

Special Topic Issue: Digestive Diseases 2007, Vol. 25, No. 3 This publication contains a selection of lectures presented at the 8th European Bridging Meeting in Gastroenterology, which was held in Naples last year. Taking place on a regular basis, these bridging meetings are intended to further the cooperation between academic institutions in Eastern and Western Europe. The papers at hand deal with important aspects of inflammatory diseases and neoplasias of the gastrointestinal tract, focusing on screening, prevention and treatment. Moreover, data on emerging issues such as capsule endoscopy and the role of intestinal bacteria are presented. Discussing a wide range of key issues, this publication will be a valuable source of information for the practicing gastroenterologist.

Donald Shelton:

As a pupil exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs.
