The Porn Plague Wilma Davidson

This remarkable book is filling an enormous gap in the market; it is crammed full of helpful information for parents, teachers and teenagers. The Porn Plague includes chapters on pornography, sexual deviations, genital surgery, anal bleaching, gang rape, forced prostitution, trafficking of children and teenagers, sexting and advice for parents, so will be a welcomed addition to the bookshelf. The Porn Plague is truly a trail blazer and the first book to be published which takes the lid off the subject of pornography by revealing the world wide scale of this industry and its harmful health effects on the minds of children and teenagers. Here is investigative journalism at its best. Wilma gives us an unbiased look at previously uncovered ground, showing that the time is right to expose the taboo which for too long has been behind closed doors.
