Endangered Land Animals” adopts a unique approach by combining cultural elements, science and literature to create awareness, love and caring for our land mammals - lions, elephants, rhinos, leopards and buffalos. These large animals are a part of our wonderful world and they help to maintain the ecological balance of the earth and have economic value for people. Senseless hunting and poaching are endangering these animals and they may become extinct. The inclusion of a story and a poem for each animal helps to motivate and heighten our appreciation of these animals and to motivate us to protect and conserve our wild life.
