?Living in several big cities, small towns, and varied countryside with different life styles and economic situations, make drama very ??palpable many a times. Having schooled and worked upcountry, in different cities and countries, the author has had her fair share of mixing with people of different walks of life, languages, cultures and races.? The opportunity to see firsthand the social, cultural, economic, and political environments in which people live and operate makes it possible for her to write on many aspects of life.?
