When the theater where she has been acting closes, Mary Ellen takes her fate in her own hands and heads west as a mail order bride. She hopes to find love in her new life, but her hopes are dashed when she and her fellow passengers are taken captive by a local Indian tribe. Held hostage and forced to learn the tribe's way of life, Mary Ellen begins to despair at ever being rescued. But as she learns the Indians' ways, Mary Ellen begins to fall in love with the wide open country—as well as the handsome warrior, Lone Rider. His strength and courage are like none she's ever seen, and soon she finds herself treasuring their brief visits together. So when rescue comes at last Mary Ellen must decide—which world will she choose?
