Brave S. Cherry

As long as she could remember she could always feel the great battle within. She's always on the outside looking in, she wants more but she's use to hiding. Athena Davenport is a young woman teetering on the edge of cracking. She's unlucky with love, hates her mundane job and going nowhere fast. There's a storming brewing inside of her and it's becoming impossible to ignore. She finally decides to go get the life she covets in her dreams. Nothing goes as planned and all Hell breaks loose. She's forced to choose; will she run back or will she throw her fears in the wind? You will laugh, you will cry but most of all, you will come to understand we are all a part of the greatest love story that has ever been told and we are all Brave!
