Micah has been on the run for ten years to keep a ruthless corporation of assassins from using her psychic gift for their own evil deeds. But her choice to run meant leaving behind the only man she'll ever love. Adam is one of the top assassins with Acier, but Micah cannot deny what she feels for him. When Adam shows up one day begging for her help to locate his son, Micah is torn between saving an innocent little boy's life and tumbling back into the emotions that nearly destroyed her. Adam did whatever he had to do to protect Micah, to make sure his employers never found her, but now that she's back in his life, can he force himself to let her go again, even if it means saving Micah and his son?
