A practical study of the book of Esther, suitable for women of all ages and spiritual maturity. 'Daylight at Midnight' is a devotional book for women of all ages. At a dark and terrifying period in Israel's history, the book of Esther reminds us of the light that shines from God's providence, and his love and faithfulness. We watch as the young, beautiful Esther is placed in the position of Queen to be used for the deliverance of her people. Key lessons are learned from the other characters. Through Mordecai we are particularly drawn to his passionate love for God's glory and his vision for the future. Haman illustrates us of Satan's destructive yet limited power. Ultimately we are reminded of the thrilling fact that God is greater.
