Silver has it all figured out. She'll finish high school with fantastic grades, more popularity than most, a resume to impress the most stringent college admissions officer, and a rock-solid plan for her future. There's only one thing standing in her way – an A in Advanced English.

When she teams up with an unlikely ally - the outcast with the hand-drawn dragon on the back of his jacket - her path becomes clear and she devises a plan to steal the final exam and guarantee that she gets an A in English.

If she fails, it will cost her everything. But if she succeeds, she'll only have to do one thing.
