Negotiating The Special Education Maze: A Guide for Parents and Teachers Deidre Hayden, Cherie Takemoto, Winifred Anderson, Stephen Chitwood

For more than 25 years, this classic guide has taken parents, guardians, educational advocates, and special educators step-by-step through the special education process. Now revised and updated, reflecting the latest changes to the special education laws, NEGOTIATING THE SPECIAL EDUCATION MAZE continues to provide thorough, time-tested advice based on the authors' years of experience helping parents advocate for their child.

The book covers all the crucial components parents and advocates need to consider from anticipating a child is not succeeding in a program or school to seeking an evaluation; from planning an Individualized Education Program (IEP) or Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP), to understanding classroom placement options and monitoring progress.

Key topics include:

Eligibility for services

Understanding the IEP process

How to write effective goals

Tips on participating in IEP meetings

Making sure IEPs are carried out and effective

The new fourth edition provides expanded information on:

Transitioning from high school to adult life

1. Employment

2. Independent living

3. Self-advocacy

4. Continuing education

Required statewide assessments for all students

Problem solving disagreements between families and schools

Due process and other legal recourses

Invaluable forms and charts help parents plan their IEP strategy, keep records and key contacts, log conversations and correspondence with important players, and track progress. This guide is one of the best tools available for understanding how to navigate the special education maze!
